

EXCELLENCE in Action

frederic CHOPIN

albert TIU

jerry WONG

tuven TONNU

donna LEE

KENT KEYBOARD SERIES:

The Piano Division of the School of Music is proud to present

Sundays at Five 2009-2010

In Honor of Frederic Chopin (1810-1849): the Great Romantic Master

1910-2010

www.kent.edu

Dec. 6: Tuyen Tonnu,

Tuyen Tonnu begins the season with an eclectic and electrifying program, including works by Knussen, Messiaen, Schumann and Chopin's Fantasie, Op. 49.

Feb. 14: Albert Tiu

Join us for an enchanted evening of music as Albert Tiu performs Scriabin and Chopin in this dazzling recital of Nocturnes, Impromptus, Mazurkas, Fantasies and Waltzes.

Feb. 21: Student Recital

Hear and be impressed by the talented Kent State piano students in an all-Chopin program. You won't want to miss this!

March 7: Jerry Wong

Kent State faculty member Jerry Wong celebrates the 200th anniversary of one of the most beloved composers in this all-Chopin program of four Impromptus, 28 Preludes and Fantasie.

April 18: Donna Lee

Kent State faculty member Donna Lee presents works by composers who inspired and were inspired by the Romantic master in a program of Bach, Mozart, Crumb and Chopin's monumental Sonata No. 3.

Admission Cost: $10 each concert
Kent State students, faculty and staff free;

All recitals take place on Sundays in Ludwig Recital Hall, Music and Speech Center on the Kent Campus.

For more information, visit [http://dept.kent.edu/music/
keyboardseries.html](http://dept.kent.edu/music/keyboardseries.html) or call 330-672-2172.

Kent State University, Kent State and KSU are registered trademarks and may not be used without permission. 09-2228

KENT STATE UNIVERSITY

PO BOX 5190 KENT OH 44242-0001

880120

The Hugh A. Glauser School of Music

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED